

For the life
you're after

My visit to AIB

I am going to AIB today.

When I see the “AIB” sign over the door I know I have arrived.

When I go inside,
I may see a large area
with clear signs listed
for different services.

The signs show me
where I should go.

There may also be a cash desk in the bank, I can go here if I need to lodge or withdraw money.

The area is clearly marked. I wait in line if people are already queuing.

There will be a Customer Service Desk in the bank.

If I want to ask a question, or if I have a meeting at the bank, I queue here to speak with a staff member who will be wearing a uniform.

There are also seats
here where I can wait
if I need to.

Different people work
in the bank and they are there to help me.

There may not always be someone behind the customer service desk, so sometimes I must wait at the desk until someone comes.

There may be a Self-Service area
in the bank.

These areas are signed
as “Quick Banking”.

Other people might be queuing for these machines while I am there.

I get my card ready before I get to the top of the queue.

I will need to put my Bank Card
into the machine.

I may not be able to get to the bank when it is open.

There may be an ATM
outside the building.

I put my card into the machine and it gives me instructions so I know what to do. And I can still take out money even if the bank is closed.

If I need extra support, I can call the Additional Support Helpline on 0818 227 056
(Monday to Friday 09:00 to 17:00, excluding Bank Holidays),
+353 818 227 056 (Outside Ireland) or visit → www.aib.ie